

Civil War Wine Dinner

Friday, October 14 • 7:00pm

[Proprietier S. Hefflebower] provides for his guests like a prince, and notwithstanding the proclamations excluding supplies from Virginia, the tables of the "City Hotel" find means to run the blockade.
Alexandria Gazette May 17, 1861

Start your evening in the Museum for the first course and conversation with Gray Ghost Vineyards, whose wines are created on lands "Gray Ghost" Confederate John S. Mosby and his men operated upon during the Civil War. Then head down to the Restaurant's main dining room to experience more wine and great food inspired by the 19th century.

Cost is $100 per person inclusive. Doors open at 7:00pm.
